Not everybody with a dollar to spare can shoot a gun straight—but everybody can shoot straight to the bank and buy War Bonds. Buy your 10% every pay day.

ECONOMY IN The Kitchen

Left-Over Chicken Makes Delicious Dishes

As chicken is rapidly becoming a main-course staple and probably will remain so for the duration, recipes for making use of left-overs are increasingly in demand.

Many times the dish resulting from these left-overs proves more popular than the chicken in its original form. Broth or gravy should, of course, always be saved as it will give the rich flavor which is important. Where one does not have enough gravy to give the proper flavor, a can of chicken soup or consomme is a good substitute.

Vivian Whaley, director of the A & P Kitchen, suggests these recipes which have been carefully tested and are economical:

Casserole of Chicken and Rice With Mushrooms

Giblets, neck, etc., of chicken
1 qt. boiling water
1 small onion, sliced
Celery leaves
Bay leaf
1 tsp. salt
1 pkg. noodles
Left-over chicken
1 can or ½ lb. mushrooms
2 tbs. butter
Salt and pepper
Dash nutmeg or mace

Wash and simmer heart, gizzard, neck and backbone of chicken in seasoned water until tender, about 2 hours. Strain off broth. Cook noodles until tender in chicken broth. Brown mushrooms with sliced chicken liver in butter. Add with left-over chicken and chopped giblets to rice. Season to taste. Turn into greased casserole and brown lightly in moderate oven, 375° F. 4 servings.

Creamed Chicken and Eggs With Peas

2 cups diced chicken
4 hard-cooked eggs, chopped
1½ cups medium white sauce
1 to 2 cups cooked peas
Salt, pepper
Few grains nutmeg
Buttered toast

Chop left-over chicken. Make a white sauce of medium thickness. Add chicken, chopped eggs, and peas. Season with salt and pepper. Serve on toast. 4 servings.

Chicken Creamed With Onions

2 cups medium white sauce
2 egg yolks, slightly beaten
2 cups diced chicken
8 cooked white onions
1 tb. lemon juice
1 tsp. vinegar
1 tb. chopped parsley

Prepare sauce using one cup each of chicken stock and rich milk or cream. Season to taste. Add sauce to egg yolks. Add chicken, onions, lemon juice, vinegar and parsley to sauce. Simmer 10 minutes. 4 servings.

"Maisie Gets Her Man" At Daly City

Laughter and romance are expertly blended in "Maisie Gets Her Man," newest in Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's series involving the abilities of Ann Sothern and Red Skelton. The picture is currently playing at the Daly City theatre.

The story is a fast-moving one which takes place against the background of the "Larceny Building," a dingy edifice which has the offices for an assortment of small-time promoters and bookies.

Maisie is still the smart Brooklyn gal, but thanks to the adventures she currently finds herself in, Miss Sothern is able to wear more than one dress. Coming after Miss Sothern's recent success in "Lady Be Good," the current picture is further evidence of the versatility of this popular star.

The film also marks the star billing for Skelton, and he well deserves it. Red plays a corny comedian who is a failure on the stage, but a swell guy just the same. Skelton is not only an uproariously funny comic, but an able actor as well.

One of the factors that lend undiminished interest to the film is the strong supporting cast.

Native Daughters Sponsor Big Public Whist, Food Sale

Card Players, attention! The annual "Homeless Children's whist and Food Sale", sponsored by El Carmelo Parlor No. 181, N. D. G. W., is scheduled to take place next Wednesday evening, October 21, at 8:30 p. m. in the Masonic hall.

So, if you like to play cards and enjoy well-cooked home-made foods, mark that date on your calendar as the event for the month of October.

The food sale and whist will be a benefit for California's homeless children. The committee has adopted "Many tiny mouths to feed and many tiny babies to clothe" as their slogan, and have gone all out to make the affair a success.

Committee chairmen Mrs. Christine Hulme, Mrs. Hattie Kelly, and Mrs. Florence Flynn have announced that there will be a generous first prize, while merchants from both Daly City and San Francisco have contributed numerous other valuable awards.

Miss Irma Zerga and Miss Adele Wood will be in charge of the food sale. Among the home-cooked goodies to be placed on sale will be cakes, pies, cup cakes, cookies, candies, salads, jams and jellies.

A Nice Spicy Relish

By Frances Lee Barton

MANY an otherwise excellent meal is spoiled because it lacks something sour, tart or spicy as a condiment or addition to the main course meat and vegetables. That's why successful hostesses are always stocked with pickles, spiced fruits, olives, horseradish and relishes of various kinds.

Here's a recipe for a relish that you may prepare while grapes are obtainable — and keep for regular use during the "entertainment" days of winter:

Spiced Grape Relish

4½ cups (2¼ lbs.) prepared fruit; 5½ cups sugar; 2 cups corn syrup; ½ cup vinegar; ½ bottle fruit pectin.

To prepare fruit, slip skins from about 3¼ pounds fully ripe grapes. Bring pulp to a boil and simmer, covered, 5 minutes; remove seeds by sieving. Chop or grind skins and add to pulp. Add ½ to 2 teaspoons each cloves and cinnamon.

Measure sugar, corn syrup, prepared fruit, and vinegar into large kettle, mix well, and bring to a full rolling boil over hottest fire. Stir constantly before and while boiling. Boil hard 1 minute. Remove from fire and stir in bottled fruit pectin. Skim; pour quickly. Paraffin hot relish at once. Makes about 12 glasses (6 fluid ounces each).

Are you entitled to wear a "target" lapel button? You are if you are investing at least ten percent of your income in War Bonds every pay day. It's your badge of patriotism.

Water Consumed by Camel

SAFEWAY Homemakers' Guide

★ Cook for a crowd with the greatest of ease ★ Produce by the pound
★ Mary learns to make eating more fun

To be sure you get full value

You get exactly what you pay for when you buy vegetables by weight, the only accurate way to measure value in the things that Nature grows. That's why Safeway sells produce by the pound—to be sure you get full value. Another thing: Safeway produce is guaranteed fresh and good.

Cook for a crowd with the greatest of ease

For economy in entertaining, saving in transportation and genuine victory friendliness, neighborhood block parties or family get-togethers are really atune with the times. Pots of steaming coffee, bowls of crisp salad, and something solid for a main dish appeal to the whole gang.

ORGANIZATION—It's another thing, of course, if large quantity cookery is new to you; but don't despair. Get some organization into the affair, let everyone know what she is to do. A good idea is to divide the responsibilities into cooking, serving, and clean-up duties and schedule everyone's work.

EQUIPMENT—If it's going to take large kettles which none of you have, borrow some. Preserving kettles are ideal for cooking large quantities of food, and cookie sheets make fine covers. Wide shallow pans are usually better than deep ones, because foods cook more quickly in shallow containers and aren't crushed by their own weight.

SERVICE—Buffet service is probably easiest for serving the crowd, particularly if the party is in the small quarters of someone's home. The Homemakers' Bureau has planned this supper menu which is well adapted for buffet style or tray service, although it could be served otherwise.

1/2 lb. onions	1/4 large green pepper or 1 small pepper

2 No. 2 cans cream-style corn	6 eggs
2 No. 2 1/2 cans tomatoes	2 lbs. ground beef
1 tbsp. salt	1 1/2 cups tomato puree

Brown finely chopped onions in hot shortening in large shallow kettle. Add corn, tomatoes, salt, and finely chopped pepper. Bring to boiling point; add corn meal slowly, stirring until well combined; cool. Add slightly beaten eggs, meat, and tomato puree; mix well. Pour into 2 well greased drip pans (9x12 1/2x2). Bake in moderate oven (350° F.) 1 hour, or until done. To serve, cut in squares. Serves 25, approximately 3/4 cup per serving; 14 servings per pan.

By David O. Alber

The popular Broadway musical, "Angel Street", is soon to be made into a movie, and we'd like to see [redacted] ing suggestions now. Are you listening; Hollywood? For the part of the nerve-riddled wife, Olivia De Havilland would be ideal; here's a role Olivia could really sink her teeth into. George Sanders is our choice for her husband — that overbearing and powerfully magnetic villain. The sharp and humorous detective could be deftly portrayed by Charles Laughton, while Bette Davis could play the insidious maid to the hilt. Okay, movie moguls — take it way!

SHEAR NOTES: The Winter Garden Theatre in N. Y. is harboring so many twins in the "Sons O' Fun" cast that Bide Dudley has rechristened the theatre the "Twintergarden" in his column in "Sir" Magazine. . . . Greer Garson will probably be "Madame Curie" as a reward for her excellent characterization in "Mrs. Miniver" . . . The Hall Johnson Choir has just been signed to appear in "Cabin in the Sky" along with Ethel Waters and Duke Ellington and his orchestra . . . Lionel Barrymore, as Dr. Gillespie, will have three young assistants competing for a permanent post in "Dr. Gillespie's New Assistant", the latest chapter in that series . . . Tallulah Bankhead joins Katharine Cornell, Katharine Hepburn, Kay Kyser, Helen Hayes, Gertrude Lawrence, Edgar Bergen and Charlie McCarthy, Ray Bolger and Jane Cowl in the all-star "Stage Door Canteen", to be produced by United Artists.

• • •

Barbara Stanwyck's appearance as a night-club dancer in "Ball of Fire" would appear to be bearing fruit. So well did Barbara fit into the backstage pattern that she has been signed for the starring role in "G-String Murders"—written by another lady of the theatre, Gypsy Rose Lee.

• • •

Ralph Edwards, who conducts radio's number one quiz, is not a man to content himself with a single medium. Not only did the "Truth or Consequences" emcee appear in RKO's "Seven Days Leave" soon to be released, but during his summer "vacation" he trod the boards up in Holyoke, Mass., appearing in the leading role in "Nothing But The Truth". So when Ralph Edwards is listed in the future as "star of radio, stage and motion pictures" — it'll be Nothing But The Truth!

A Sugarless Surprise

By Frances Lee Barton

SUGAR and dessert went hand in hand for generations. Today, desserts are learning to step out and toddle alone—and, surprising as it may seem, they are doing a wonderful job of it. Some of our most attractive dessert recipes call for no sugar other than the sugar content of some of the ingredients of the dessert.

For instance, here is an apple whip that is delicious enough for any dessert fan. It's easy to make, economical and healthful:

Apple Whip

1 package imitation raspberry-flavored gelatin; ⅔ cup hot water; ⅔ cup milk; ⅔ cup strained apple sauce.

Dissolve gelatin in hot water. Add milk and apple sauce. Chill until cold and syrupy. Place in bowl of cracked ice or ice water and whip with rotary egg beater until light and fluffy. Turn into individual molds. Chill until firm. Unmold. Serves 4 to 6.

Vote
"YES"
ON
PROPOSITION
NO. 1
DO NOT BE CONFUSED

The measure which appears as STATE PROPOSITION NO. 1 on the November 3 ballot was adopted as a WARTIME REGULATION by a two-thirds majority of the California State Legislature at its 1941 Session.

The vote was 33 to 5 in the Senate and 54 to 26 in the Assembly.

The State AFL has prevented the law from going into effect by circulating referendum petitions and thereby placing the measure on the November 3 ballot for the people's vote.

There may be some confusion in the minds of the voters as to how they should vote to uphold the State Legislature and to put into operation this much-needed law. You can not go wrong if you simply remember this:

If you believe that the pernicious practice of "Hot Cargo" and the Secondary Boycott should be suspended for the duration of the war, vote "YES."

Most of the disputes where the Secondary Boycott was used were jurisdictional disputes—labor unions fighting amongst themselves—disrupting industry and the war effort.
